In The High Court at Calcutta
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

WPCT No.166 of 2014
Sri Biswa Nath Seth
v.
Union of India & Ors.

Mr. Kajal Ray                      ... for the petitioner.

Mrs. Gopa Roy                      ... for the UOI.

The petitioner is aggrieved by an order of the Central Administrative Tribunal Calcutta Bench dismissing his OA.

It has been submitted that notice has been given to the respondents. However, none appears for the respondents. All the pleadings used before the Tribunal have not been produced with the WPCT. Advocate has submitted that he shall file all the pleadings with a separate affidavit. After hearing advocate we are of the opinion that it will be appropriate to admit the WPCT. There is no question of passing any interim order.

For these reasons, we admit the WPCT. The petitioner is directed to produce all the pleadings used before the Tribunal with a supporting affidavit, within a fortnight. This order shall be served on the respondents within a week. Affidavit of service shall be filed at the time of final hearing. Add the WPCT to the next monthly list for hearing. Certified xerox.
