IN THE HIGH COURT OF JHARKHAND AT RANCHI (Civil Writ Jurisdiction) W.P.(C) No. 701 of 2020

M/s Keshri Industries Petitioner

Versus

The State of Jharkhand & Ors. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KAILASH PRASAD DEO

For the Petitioner : Mr. K. K. Ojha, Advocate. For the Respondents/State : Mr. Deepankar, A.C. to A.G.

08/11.07.2022.

After some argument learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. K. K. Ojha seeks permission to withdraw this writ petition, so as to file an objection against the demand made by the District Sub Registrar, Garhwa as contained in letter No.16 dated 22.01.2020.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted, that since time to file objection has elapsed, as such, this Court may condone the delay from the date of filing of the writ petition i.e. 15.02.2020 till today under Section 14 of the Limitation Act.

Learned counsel for the respondents/State, Mr. Deepankar, A.C. to A.G. has submitted, that writ petition is not maintainable and thus to delay the payment, such writ petition has been filed, which is kept pending for quite long time till 21.06.2022 when this Court has passed a peremptory order then only defects have been removed, as such, even if the delay is condoned under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, the respondents are free to calculate the interest over the admitted dues.

Considering the rival submissions of the parties, looking into fact and circumstances of the case, since learned counsel for the petitioner has sought permission to withdraw this writ petition, the instant writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty to the petitioner to file representation / objection before the competent authority in accordance with law within a period of 30 days from today.

The period of filing of the writ petition from 15.02.2020 till today shall be considered under Section 14 of the Limitation Act, but respondents are free to calculate interest over admitted dues in accordance with law.
